

Company Profile

John L. Coddington and Harold L. Melton founded Eagle Magnetic Company in 1970. For more than three decades, Eagle Magnetic has been one of America's premier providers of magnetic shielding solutions for telecommunications, medical, military, computer, and electronics industries.

Today, Alice J. Coddington continues to demonstrate the "no-compromise"

Quality & Manufacturing Processes that earned Eagle Magnetic its World-class reputation.

We use the latest NC Equipment & Technology to produce a wide variety of products.

Eagle has manufactured parts which are utilized in the latest Indy Racing League™ to Magnetic Shields & other components in Missiles & other Military Equipment used in the recent war campaign.
